1001 nights restaurant shanghai

The food is great! The price is right. It however might not be the best venue for an intimate dinner as there are live belly dancing performances and very loud music. Very nice Arabic restaurant & very delicious Arabic food. I recommend Great restaurant! We ate baqlava and it fell on its paper wrap! 10 out of 10! We will come here again! Comparing to the 1001night in Beijing. Everything here suck. Even the shishagood for muslims and good hooka or shisha. Very nice Arabic restaurant & very delicious Arabic food. I recommend Great middle eastern food. Hilarious belly dancing. Incompetent waitstaff. Food and atmosphere is great. No free water though, they charge you 20 kuai for a bottle. Try and avoid the really rather bad belly dancing but get stuck into the selections of delicious kebabs. Like the Iranian kebab Only couscous in Shanghai as far as I know! don't like the place in shanghai. Arabic food is terrible. Shisha is less than OK!! Exceptionally bad service. Only Arabian restaurant in Shanghai. Terribly under seasoned food and horrible service. Two thumbs down. Gittigum arap restaurant (an iqende en yiisi, yemekler cok lezzetli, dansoz bile var.)) Чучий калыя в шанхай! ? 70rbm! 服务不咋地！孔子曰老少见老乡，背后放一枪。昨天晚上跟一个哥们去吃饭，是个沈阳妹子给点的菜。我问了她好几遍这些够不够，她一个劲给我推荐。最后结账俩人吃了770+. 很好，verygoodrestaurant Here, some of the city's best Middle Eastern cuisine is served in a fun, festive atmosphere. Come for the kebabs, stay for the belly dancers. 1001 nights is one of the restaurants established in the 1990s that brought international flavors to Shanghai and renowned Hengshan Road for various tasty foods. The restaurant is dedicated to serving Middle Eastern foods in authentic flavors and featured with live belly dance show started in the night. Read more Similar Venues There is no similar venue yet Located a few hundred yards from the Hermitage, an ideal place to sample the exotic dishes of Central Asia. Stepping in off the street, it's like taking a journey to another world of vaulted ceilings, exotic decor, luxurious furnishings, painted murals, gently murmuring water features, and of course a warm oriental welcome. Start your meal with some local dishes, hot or cold, perhaps a warming soup on a cold winter's day or a selection of cold salads based on Russian and Central Asian recipes incorporating aubergines, pomegranates, seeds and walnuts for example. Then try one of the main meat dishes such as shishlik or dolma kebab in a choice of chicken, beef or lamb, together with a plate of vine leaves, juicy and sweet Uzbek dumplings or the national rice dish, pilaf. If fish is your preference, you can try the salmon steak. Make sure you get a choice of vegetables to share, such as tomatoes, peppers or baked aubergine, add some freshly-baked flat bread and try the local hot sauce, adjika, to spice things up. There's a full wine, beer and liquor menu for a price of 100+ RMB. Not far away from the Museum of Chinese History, 1001 Nights Arabian Restaurant is located on Jiajing Road. The exterior looks like a traditional Arabic building with a golden dome and minaret. Go inside and you'll be transported straight to its authentic Middle Eastern food. 1001 Nights Arabian Restaurant offers a wide variety of original Middle Eastern food including hummus, mutton kebabs and many other featured dishes. This restaurant regularly holds barbecue nights, which customers can feast on delicious barbecued meats. Customers will get a chance to appreciate excellent Arabian singing and dancing performances from 7:00PM to 2:00AM in the restaurant. Signature Dishes: Mutton Kebab, Special Pine Nut Sauce, Salad, Xinjiang's Hand Taken Rice, Buffet, Barbecue Business Hours: 11:00AM-2:00AM Trending now Covid Open Restaurants ★★★★ we visited this restaurant while we were in Shanghai, and we were amazed about the number of lebanese dishes they had on the menu. I had the "Steak au poivre" and my colleague had "Roasted chicken", and both were seasoned properly and tasty, a little dry though. The prices were affordable, and the middle eastern decoration makes the place cozy. I will recommend this place to any muslim visiting the area and looking for halal food Posted on August 25, 2011 De la opinion : Mobile Photo Upload sobre 1001 Nights Restaurant
